

API Testing

By Patrick Poulin, Mark Winteringham and Richard Bradshaw

- 1 Define what API testing is, share your definition on The Club.
- 2 How would you approach API Exploratory Testing?
- 3 Begin reading an API testing related book and share something you've learnt by day 30.
- 4 Share a resource on HTTP and how it works.
- 5 Contribute to the list of publicly available APIs over on The Club, that we can utilise to practice API testing.
- 6 Read and share an interesting blog post on API testing.
- 7 Complete exercise one over at The Club using popular API testing tools such as Postman, SoapUI, and API Fortress.
- 8 Explore the API thread on The Club and contribute to the conversations.
- 9 Share some tools we can use to discover what API calls our applications are making.
- 10 Share your favourite API testing tools and why.
- 11 Learn about different types of API's, share your findings.
- 12 Share what skills a team needs to succeed with API testing.
- 13 Contribute to the list of API automation tools over on The Club and share your experiences with using them.
- 14 Compare and contrast mocking, stubbing, and faking.
- 15 Find, use and share your thoughts on a new API testing tool.
- 16 Complete exercise two over at The Club using a framework in your preferred language, or a tool with automation capabilities.
- 17 Find 5 API testing experts to follow on Twitter.
- 18 Share an HTTP Header and explain its purpose.
- 19 Find and share a useful video about API testing.
- 20 Share all the tools, frameworks, and libraries currently used in your API testing along with why.
- 21 Complete exercise three over at The Club using your preferred tools.
- 22 Share your biggest frustration with API testing!
- 23 Status codes are often misused, share your favourite resources for understanding status codes.
- 24 Share the best API bug you've found.
- 25 Security is important in APIs, how are you security testing your APIs?
- 26 Demo some of your API testing to other members of your team.
- 27 What advice would you give to someone looking to get started with API testing?
- 28 Performance is key to a good API, how are you performance testing your APIs?
- 29 Browser developer tools have lots of API testing features, explore them and share your findings.
- 30 Complete exercise four over at The Club using your preferred tool, it's all about data iteration.
- Bonus: Sign up for a trial of API Fortress.

